Dear Abe:

Received your letter, and was really glad to get it. I had started geeting jittery, after all this is our first time working together. I guess I will learn how you do things later.

Now I wont send my lineup for a couple days, as we are making some changes. For one thing I am sending to S. America for two men. I hope they get here in time for the western trip. I will send publicity also, by the first of next week.

I do hope the trip is good, because I would like to come back again later. I have time in July when I could arrange it, but I think I would wrather wait and see how we make out on this trip. You know it is very expensive keeping these men on the road.

Look to hear from me in a couple days, and I will look to hear from you where we will be on June 7th.

Very Truly Yours
